

Dynaspheres and Spirituality

“Mr. Keely, of Philadelphia, was, and still is, at the threshold of some of the greatest secrets of the Universe; ...” (Helena Blavatsky, Secret Doctrine Vol. 1, first published 1888, Theosophical University Press 1974, p. 556)

“Keely set his engine in motion with vibrations created in his own organism. Such vibrations depend on a person’s moral nature. This is the first hint of a dawn for a technology of the future.” (Rudolf Steiner, The Christian Mystery, lectured 1906, Completion Press 2000, pp. 29-30)

“... a driving force which can only be set in motion by the power of selfless love. It will be possible to use this power to drive machines, ...” (Rudolf Steiner, The Temple Legend, lectured 1906, Rudolf Steiner Press 1985, p. 312)

Dale Pond wrote about the first Dynasphere they made:

“Atlin emitted a warm glow felt by those sensitive to etheric fields. These fields were interpreted by hundreds of people as Love, warmth, peace and joy.” (Dale Pond, Atlin - Knowing I AM, Delta Spectrum research 2001, p. 6)
