

2.22 - Voiding - an Effect of Desire and Will Force

The Dark and Light intermingle as two seeming opposites seeking to Void themselves into or against the each other. A seeking to become the One they were and are yet to be again and again. (See Rhythmic Balanced Interchange) This seeking of the polar state to become depolar is the power desire or drive of all polar states. This is the motivative power that drives the universe. A desire when directed with Intent is Will as in Will to do or Will to have. This desire to become One or as One is the great desire of all individuals whether they acknowledge it or not. It is the desire to experience unconditional, undifferentiated Universal Love which is a memory deep in consciousness most feel but are unconsciously aware. This Sympathetic Outreach is the ceaseless driving Prime Motivative force throughout the universe.

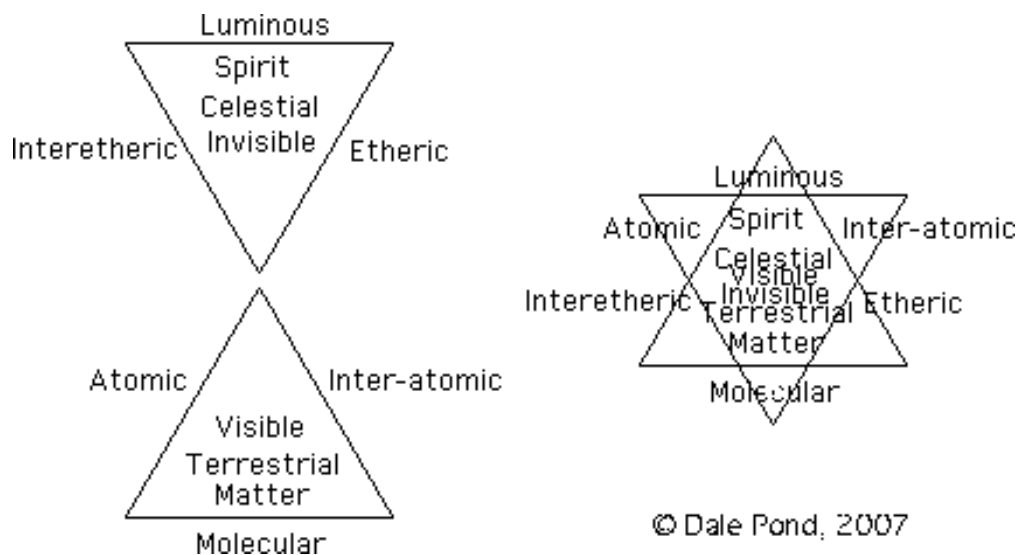

"Will force," writes Keely, "is a latent, spiritual element, neither gaseous nor otherwise. Its evolution is brought into action under certain spiritual conditions not now understood by science. Its protoplasmic element is actually luminous, in respect to its latent flow from the cerebral domain; but all the flow that has ever been registered from the time of the birth of every volume of thought - all that ever existed, or will ever exist in the future - would not produce a substance of matter the size of a molecule." Keely, Keely and His Discoveries See [Celestial Radiation, Mind]

There is another phenomena Keely referred to as when a magnet is about to kiss its keeper. If you've played with strong magnets you know this feeling when the two magnets are just about to touch. When two opposites are about to Void (neutralize their polarities) there is a sudden increase of attractive energy. This is a phenomena of Keely's "sympathetic outreach" evoking like response in an opposite. The effects of this "sympathetic outreach" can be experienced while being around a "sexy" member of the opposite sex or experiencing music that causes your foot to tap and maybe you humming along or eventually swaying and dancing. I think vibrations are the same in action/reaction as may be any other vibrating object. The vibrations in the object begin falling in synch and their phases eventually lock and so results a harmonic response (in tune) or synchronization of aliquot parts; i.e., sympathetic vibration and sympathetic oscillation. What happens to one begins happening to the other; i.e., sympathy or (unison, harmony, oneness) has been established. Without seeming opposites coming together there would not be this evoked sympathetic response or (mutual love). Which may be a round about explanation of why we are in material form - Man reaching to Spirit - as Spirit reaches to Man. When the two approximate, evoking sympathetic response or (love) in the other, there is a burst of Awakening Light, which is to say a "remembering" we are Love. Once these two seeming opposites (Matter / Terrestrial and Spirit / Celestial) reach and interpenetrate one another there is initiated a swirling gyroscopic (vortex) motion; i.e., LIFE in all its activities. See [Universal Heart Beat]

Russell

"The heavens and the earths of My curved universe are father-mother of My universe, each of each and each to the other one. Neither one can be save the other also be.

"Nor can one leave the other, saying, 'Sit thou here while I journey to the far reaches.'

"Nor can there be aught upon the earth without the fathering skies, nor in the skies without the motherhood of earth; neither man, nor bird, nor reptile, nor fish, nor beast of wild jungle; neither tree, nor flower, nor shrilly singing insect; neither tempest, wild tornado, nor gentle breeze of calm ocean; nor cloud, nor mist, nor dew drop for flower petal; not one of these things can be born of earth alone unfathered by the heavens, nor can heaven alone born them without the motherhood of earth.

.."Again I say: I, the Light, am One. But my thinking is two, for thought is two in every creating thing, two halves of One which never can be one. Always must they be two to go opposed ways from Me and back again to Me for reborning from the other one after finding rest in Me." - From THE DIVINE ILIAD; Russell, The Secret of Light, page 96-97]

Karl von Eckartshausen

"God made Himself man to deify man. Heaven united itself with earth to transform earth into Heaven. But in order that these divine transformations can take place, an entire change, a complete and absolute overturning and upsetting of our being, is necessary.

This change, this upsetting, is called re-birth. To be born, simply means to enter into a world in which the senses dominate, in which wisdom and love languish in the bonds of individuality.

To be re-born means to return to a world where the spirit of wisdom and love governs, and where animal-man obeys.

The re-birth is triple; first, the re-birth of our intelligence; second, of our heart and of our will; and, finally, the re-birth of our entire being." [Cloud Upon the Sanctuary by Karl von Eckartshausen]

In the ancient religious and mystical symbolisms we can see the very forces of the universe. Whether considering the magnificent Michelangelo painting or the alchemical drawings or the Star of David or even the Christian Cross - they all represent these two states or conditions as are required to produce the effect known as Life. Take away sun light (celestial) and plants die. Take away earth (terrestrial) and the plants die. Both are required for sustained Life which is intelligent or directed Motion with purpose or ideal.
