

Thoughtsphere

The following quote is taken from The Peacemaker and the Key of Life by William Henry (Earthpulse Press, Inc., P.O. Box 201393, Anchorage, AK 99520 - Copyright © 1997 William Henry):

“Eastern teachers predict that only one-tenth of one percent of the human race is needed to create powerful enough chaotic vibrations in the “thoughtsphere”™. Presently, slightly more than six billion people inhabit the garden of earth. All it takes is 6,000,000 people to change their thinking to create a “thoughtsphere”™ of peace. All it takes is one of these humans to “flower”™ or blossom and the entire earth will bloom!” See Noosphere

Are you the 6 millionth person? You say what can one person do? That person could be the 6th millionth person. Think about it!
