"When we take into consideration the effect upon the nerves (in sensitive organisations) of living in the vicinity of railways, more especially of the elevated railways in cities, the incessant jarring vibrations which are communicated to houses, even from underground railways, to say nothing of the piercing shrieks of the steam whistle, is it to be wondered at that mental disorders and nervous diseases are on the increase? With this increase of the most terrible form of affliction, the remedy will follow, for our necessities are known to One who "with a Father's care and affectionate attention supplies the wants as they arise, of the worlds which lie like children in His bosom". Transcendental Physics will, in due time, make known the curableness of many disorders now considered incurable."
