

state police

Schauberger

Venereal and malarial bacteria are eliminated and passed out of the body in bloodstained urine. In short, under the supervision of doctors, no affliction has yet been found which has been able to offer any resistance to this life-current. Even malignant cases of cancer improved quite remarkably. These experiments were discontinued, because the secret state police intervened owing to rising indignation amongst the medical fraternity. [The Energy Evolution - Harnessing Free Energy from Nature, The Life-Current in Air and Water]

See Also

government
rights